VIII. STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative, inerrant Word of God (2 Timothy 3:16, 2 Peter 1:21).

We believe there is one God, eternally existent in three persons - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Genesis 1:1, Matthew 28:19, John 10:30).

We believe in the deity of Christ (John 10:33), His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14, Matthew 1:23, Luke 1:35), His sinless life (Hebrews 4:15, 7:26), His miracles (John 2:11), His vicarious and atoning death (1 Corinthians 15:3, Ephesians 1:7, Hebrews 2:9), His resurrection (John 11:25, 1 Corinthians 15:4), His Ascension to the right hand of God (Mark 16:19), and His personal return in power and glory (Acts 1:11, Revelation 19:11).

We believe in the absolute necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit for salvation because of the exceeding sinfulness of human nature and that men are justified on the single ground of faith in the shed blood of Christ and that only by God's grace and through faith alone are we saved (John 3:16-19, 5:24; Romans 3:23, 5:8-9; Ephesians 2:8-10; Titus 3:5).

We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life, and they that are lost unto the resurrection of condemnation (John 5:28-29).

We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 8:9, 1 Corinthians 12:12-13, Galatians 3:26-28).

We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life (Romans 8:13-14; 1 Corinthians 3:16, 6:19-20; Ephesians 4:30, 5:18).

I have read and agree with the NCA Statement of Faith.

IX. NCA STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT TO CHRISTIAN LIFE AND CULTURAL SENSITIVITY

When an individual becomes a member of a community, he or she always lays aside certain personal rights for the good of the total community. To this end, it is understood that those who have accepted positions of leadership and responsibility within Nicaragua Christian Academy are to commit themselves to uphold the standards as cited in this statement.

Standards based on specific commands of Scripture

The Word of God is the final authority on all matters of faith and conduct. Therefore, items expressly forbidden in the Scripture are never acceptable (Exodus 20:7, 14-15; Leviticus 19:1 1; Romans 1:21-27; 1 Corinthians 6:9; Ephesians 4:28-32, 5:3-4; Colossians 3:9; 1 Timothy 3:3; Titus 1:6). Included among these are such acts as drunkenness, stealing, lying, use of slanderous or profane language, extramarital sex, and homosexual behavior. Also condemned by Scripture are such attitudes as greed, jealousy, pride, lust, bitterness, hostility, an unforgiving spirit and prejudice based on race, sex and socioeconomic status.

Therefore, Nicaragua Christian Academy strives to see these attitudes eliminated as evidenced in speech and action and replaced by Christ-like attitudes appropriate for maturing Christians.

Standards based on Scriptural principles, including culturally specific applications

While Scripture does not provide specific teaching regarding all social practices in a given cultural setting, it does speak to the Christian's responsibility in areas of conduct which may be harmful or spiritually offensive to self or others. Based on this, as well as to protect from the snare of harmful addictive behavior, those covered by this statement are expected to refrain from the use of alcoholic beverages, tobacco and illicit drugs (Romans 14; 1 Timothy 3:3; Titus 1:7) while in the country of Nicaragua. Since a Christian is to abstain from all that is morally degrading, restraint and discretion in the choice of entertainment and literature are expected. They should demonstrate the ability to make sound judgment based on biblical principles and display tangible evidence of spiritual growth and maturity (Titus 2:11,12). In addition, those covered by this statement are expected to respect what is acceptable in physical appearance in the Christian community in Nicaragua. Teachers are expected to maintain standards of professional appearance both in dress and in overall appearance. Modesty in hair style and jewelry are expected. Visible tattoos are not permitted, and the only acceptable visible piercings are earrings on female teachers.

Personal standards of godliness

Since we are members of both the local and universal body of Jesus Christ, it is expected that everything we do will reflect our commitment to our Lord and to His body of believers. This commitment is to be demonstrated by personal spiritual growth, faithful involvement in Nicaragua Christian Academy, and expressions of Christian love toward those with physical or spiritual needs. All are also expected to aspire to a faithful pattern of godliness and devotion to Christ and His work, typified by, but not limited to the following (I Timothy 4:6-16):

- Regular devotional life: Scripture reading and study, prayer... (I Timothy 4:7)
- Faithful church membership and attendance (I Timothy 4:12, 13; Hebrews 10:24,25)
- Faithful financial stewardship (2 Corinthians 9:6-8)
- Personal volunteer ministry work (Romans 12:1 1; I Peter 5:2, 3)
- Active involvement in evangelism/discipleship (Matthew 28:19, 20)
- A strong commitment to conscientiously represent the Lord Jesus Christ within the ministry, throughout our community, and to the ends of the earth.

Standards based on our responsibility of influence

In our relationship with others within the body of Christ, our conduct should demonstrate an attitude of personal responsibility and sensitivity, by always being aware of the impact of our actions and attitudes on others (“You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather, serve one another in love.”) (Galatians 5:13). It is recognized that conflicts and personal failures may occur, as Scripture declares “we all stumble in many ways” (James 3:2). It is expected that when an offense occurs, the instructions of Matthew 18:15-20 must be followed. This is to be done in the spirit of Galatians 6: 1, thereby making “every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace” (Ephesians 4:3). When personal failures occur within our lives, we are to quickly repent, seek forgiveness and with the help of godly counsel, prevent these from getting a hold on our lives. To do otherwise would jeopardize our continued role in leadership or specific ministry responsibility.

We should understand that our acceptance of responsibility within the ministries of Nicaragua Christian Academy reinforces the importance of our personal commitment to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord and to the Bible as God’s inerrant Word. It is in view of this and the seriousness of the impact our ministry responsibility brings that we are to commit ourselves to live in accordance with the above Statement of Commitment to Christian Life and Cultural Sensitivity.

I, with God’s help and direction, commit to striving to live according to the high standards set forth by Nicaragua Christian Academy, for the sake of my personal testimony to my brother and for the sake of unity among believers. I understand that as a teacher, I am called to a higher standard for the sake of my students and the testimony I must live before them.
